It is admitted, has given $100,000 in the last eighteen months and probably more. The bulk of the money has been accounted for in a single transaction, a cash half million.

It is the first and legitimate fruits of a colonial policy and a subject people. For years we have sympathized with the French and German citizens groaning under the load of militarism. Last year the war budget of Germany for her 100,000 men was in round numbers, $124,000,000. France, with 600,000 men, paid $125,000,000. In both these budgets pensions are included.

"Our appropriation for the present fiscal year for an army of 60,000 men is $125,000,000, and to this if you add the pension for the 100,000 men it is $125,000,000, or $14,000,000 more than Germany and France combined."

"Chairman Cowherd's remarks were warmly applauded. Committees on Credentials, Permanent Organization and Resolutions were named. The completion of the Credentials Committee makes it certain that the fight against the police machine in St. Louis and Kansas City will be conducted to the bitter end. The convention adopted a resolution thanking Congress, and particularly Senators Cockerill and Vest for the passage of the St. Louis World's Fair Bill. Success was then taken until 4 o'clock.

A very important development of the morning was a story to the effect that the enemies of William J. Stone of St. Louis were preparing an organization, not only to defeat him for re-nomination as national committeeman, but also to prevent his being elected to the St. Louis street railway strikers, and is unable to attend the convention. In his absence, his friends say a movement has been started against him with William J. Stone as the main object.

Up to this time it has been taken for granted that the mantle of United States Senator George G. Vest, whose term expires in 1907, will fall on Stone. It is argued that if Stone could be shelved now, the Senate would be a free-for-all race, offering equal opportunities to Congressman Benton, Clark, De Armond, Dockery, and possibly Governor Stephens.

It is not a question that ex-Governor A. M. Dockery would be nominated for Governor by acclamation of the anti-police crowd.

CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE.
(A. P. DAY REPORT.)
KANSAS CITY, June 5.—The Credentials Committee organized by electing J. J. Butler of St. Louis, chairman, a selection that made the police machine crowd fear for the result in their contest. The Committee on Permanent Organization decided upon Mr. Cowherd for permanent chairman, which was another victory for the anti-police crowd.

The report of the Credentials Committee, made at the first order of business, was not ready when the convention met at 4 o'clock, and after a wait of an hour and a half during which Mayor James A. Reed and State Senator David A. Butler addressed the delegates, a recess was taken until 8 p.m.

DEMOCRATS OF NEW YORK.
SKIRMISHING FOR POINTS.
(A. P. DAY REPORT.)
NEW YORK, June 5.—The Democratic State Convention today elected their delegates-at-large to the National Democratic Convention at St. Louis, B. Hill, Richard Croker, Edward R. Murphy and Augustus Van Wyck. Alternates—Frank Campbell, Jacob Ruppert, J. C. Morgan, Sanford and James Shevlin. Electors-at-large—Frederick Cook of Rochester, Robert C. Tittle of Buffalo.

The platform adopted contains no re-affirmation of the Chicago platform of 1892, but a declaration that the party in the State will support the platform of 1892, and the election of the United States Senators by the people, and favors the nomination of W. J. Bryan. The delegates to the national convention are to act as a unit.

1896 as the fundamental law of the party, and we declare it to be the duty of every loyal Democrat to stand by and upon that platform until it is altered by another national convention.

The convention was called to order at 11:45 a. m., by Frank Campbell, chairman of the State Central Committee, who announced the selection of John T. Norton of Troy for temporary chairman. Mr. Norton, on assuming the chair, attacked the administration of Gov. Roosevelt, saying in effect that he had won his way to the governor's chair, but that the governor was called and then the customary resolutions, including one providing for the reference of all resolutions to a committee, were introduced and adopted. The convention then took a recess until 4 p. m.

The Committee on Resolutions heard arguments for over an hour by advocates of the Chicago platform (last year). The committee took a recess at 2:40 p. m. until 3:15 p. m., without having arrived at any decision. The resolutions were then read, and the committee was then taken until 4 o'clock.

Jeffries Will Take on Fitzsimmons.

But Must Have the Long End of the Purse.

"Kid McCoy" Will Not Meet Tom Sharkey—Baseball and Races.

(BY TELETYPE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, June 5.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Bob Fitzsimmons has finally concluded to meet Jim Jeffries on the wild terms imposed by the champion, and the two may be seen in the ring together before the Horton law ceases to exist.

When Fitzsimmons was the champion, and Jeffries came to him seeking a match, he insisted that as champion, he should have the long end of the purse, win or lose. Jeffries made the concession to get the match, and won. Then when Jeffries wanted another go, Jeffries simply reversed the proposition and said he would fight, but that, win or lose, he must have the bulk of the money. Fitzsimmons said today that he would put a forfeit on the terms named by Jeffries.

"KID" MCCOY BACKS OUT.
(BY TELETYPE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, June 5.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) "Kid" McCoy has backed out of his contract to fight Tom Sharkey at Coney Island, June 25, and the make-off McCoy says that he has done so much training and fighting lately that he does not believe his health would stand the strain of preparing for the money of the fight.

He is believed, however, to have had another reason, and that is the fear of his inability to win, and make a satisfactory showing against the sturdy sailor. Simultaneously with the calling off of the match, McCoy announced his willingness to give Tommy Ryan another chance.

(A. P. NIGHT REPORT.)
NEW YORK, June 5.—Jean Beraud and Imp measured strides in the Brookdale Handicap at Gravesend today and Jean Beraud won after a stirring struggle from flag pole to finish. The race was at one mile and a furlong, and only four horses started, Charentus and Prince McChug with the others making up the field. They were sent off on the first break to a good start. Jean Beraud was on the rail with Imp next, and then came down past the stand line, team, runner, head and head. Going up the back stretch, Jean showed in front by half a length. Rounding the far turn Imp moved up on even terms and they came into the stretch neck and neck. Then for a few strides the black mare's head showed in front. At the last sixteenth Jean's head was in front and he won by a neck, while the crowd cheered them both to the echo. At no time during the entire race were they more than half a length apart. ANTI-BETTING ORDINANCE.
CHIEF SULLIVAN IS ENJOINED.
(A. P. DAY REPORT.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—Chief of Police Sullivan has been enjoined from enforcing the provisions of the anti-pool selling ordinance adopted last week by the Supervisors. The measure prohibits betting on prize fights. Attorney George D. Collins, representing the pool room, went before Judge Murray today and asked that an injunction be served on the Chief of Police preventing him from stopping the business of his client. He averred that it was their only means of support. That their business had been built up by hard toil, the investment was large, and, finally, that the ordinance was not in accordance with the charter and the State laws, and therefore not legal.

Upon receiving the petition Judge Murray took the matter under advisement and later issued an interlocutory injunction restraining Chief Sullivan from acting on the law until the legality of it can be tested.

SOUTH AFRICA.

Issued the following dispatch from Lord Roberts:

"PRETORIA, June 8, 11:40 a.m.—We are now in possession of Pretoria. The official entry will be made this afternoon at 4 o'clock."

TEOMANY BATTALION BAGGED.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]

LONDON, June 8, 12 midnight.—Lord Roberts reports to the War Office that the Thirteenth Battalion of the Imperial Yeomanry (Irish) was "overwhelmed by the Boers at Lindley."

Lord Methuen made a "magnificent march to the rescue," but too late. Following is the text of the dispatch from Lord Roberts:

"PRETORIA STATION, June 8, 12:35 p.m.—I regret to report that the Thirteenth Imperial Yeomanry had been surrounded by a very superior force of the enemy, May 31, near Lindley. On receiving information of the battalion being attacked, I ordered its assistance."

"Methuen was then on the march on the Helibron side of Kroonstad, and half an hour after the receipt of my telegram on June 1 he started off. By 10 a.m. of the following day he had marched forty-four miles in twenty-five hours, but he was too late to rescue Col. Spragg's yeomanry."

"Methuen, attacked the Boers, who were between two and three thousand strong, and after a running fight of five hours completely routed the enemy."

"It is a very regrettable circumstance, but I trust it will not be very long before the Irish yeomanry are released from captivity."

SITUATION CONFUSED.

FRANCIS'S CAVALRY TACTICS.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, June 8.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says that there has been a complete embargo on war news for twenty-four hours. A column can be filled with things which the public is not allowed to know, such as Gen. Roberts's plan of campaign against Pretoria. Gen. Buller's progress in turning the Boers out of Laing's Nek, the direction and extent of the movements from the western border into the Transvaal, and the Hunter, Methuen, Baden-Powell, and Carrington; the whereabouts of French and Hamilton, and the full effects of the counter-stroke planned by the Free State generals against the British line of communication.

A few lines will suffice for an exposition of the scraps of information which the censor permits to pass over the wire. These relate mainly to Gen. Warren's fight with the rebels, Gen. Buller's reconnaissance in force which was converted into a serious engagement, the capture of two of Brabant's patrols near Pekaiberg, the uncertainty of the situation at Pekaiberg, and the flight of the Boer officials to the coast or to the mountains. News of real importance is suppressed, and it is not practicable for the shrewdest expert to ascertain what is going on at the front or to forecast the date for the occupation of Pretoria.

The War Office closed at midnight without throwing any light upon the confused situation. It is probable that Gen. Roberts's inaction at Johannesburg is due to the necessity of reorganizing reinforcements before ordering a fresh advance. He has only four brigades of infantry on the advance line and one of these must be left behind to guard Johannesburg. Three brigades of infantry, as many brigades of cavalry and a division mounted infantry hardly suffice for the occupation of Pretoria, especially when the railway needs to be guarded. It is reasonable to assume that he is waiting either for the columns to appear from the western frontier or for reinforcements to arrive from the south. There is no evidence that his line of communication has been broken by the raiding operations of the Free State commandos, or that the Dutch operations on the eastern bank have been successful at any point. Gen. Roberts is waiting until he is fully prepared to drive the Boers from Pretoria and possibly to intercept a portion of their force.

The inquiry with which Gen. Buller's movements are beset is not being explained. The military experts agree that he is the only general on the British side who has devised new tactics during the campaign. He has taught his troops to ride fully ten yards apart and to advance by a series of rushes over a line of fire, and he has taught them to approach at intervals of three, one trooper holding three horses while the other two fire their rifles, and all galloping on for a fresh rush.

French's tactical ideas, in the judgment of experts, are likely to revolutionize modern warfare.

ROBERTS REPORTS A BUST DAY.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

LONDON, June 8.—(By Atlantic Cable.) The War Office this morning issues the following dispatch received from Lord Roberts:

"SIX MILES SPRUIT, 8:30 p.m.—We started this morning at daybreak and marched all day to Six Miles Spruit, both banks of which were occupied by the enemy. Henry's and Row's mounted infantry with the West Somerset, Dorset, Bedford and Sussex companies. Yeomanry quickly dislodged them from the south bank, and pursued them nearly a mile when they found themselves under a heavy fire from guns which the Boers had placed in a well-concealed, commanding position."

"Our heavy guns of the naval and royal artillery which had purposely been placed in the front part of the column were hurried to the assistance of the mounted infantry as fast as oxen and mules could travel over the great rolling hills surrounding Pretoria. The guns were supported by Stevenson's brigade of Poles-Carew and after a few rounds, drove the enemy from their positions."

"The Boers then attempted to turn our left flank, in which they were again foiled by the mounted infantry and Yeomanry, supported by the Armstrong's brigade of Tucker's division. As, however, they still kept pressing our left rear, I sent word to Ian Hamilton, who was advancing three miles to our left, to come toward us and fill up the gap between the two columns. The day's fighting was checked, the enemy who were driven back toward Pretoria. I hoped we would have been able to follow them up, but the days now are very short in this part of the world, and, after nearly two hours' marching and fighting, we had to move away from the ground maintained during the day."

"The Guards brigade is quite near the southernmost fort by which Pretoria is defended and less than four miles from the town."

"French with the Third and Fourth Cavalry brigades and Hutton's New South Wales mounted rifles, is north of Pretoria. Brackenford's brigade is between French's and Hamilton's columns, and Gordon is watching the right flank of the main force not far from the railway bridge at Irene station, which was destroyed by the enemy."

"Our casualties, I hope, are very few."

Turbulent Rejoicing Over the Downfall of the Boer Republic.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]

LONDON, June 8, 4:40 a.m.—(By Atlantic Cable.) Queen Victoria, surrounded by the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, attended the Boer, French, and British, and many other notables of her court, drank to the health of Lord Roberts and the army at Balmoral last evening.

A bonfire, lighted at Her Majesty's command, blazed on Craigswan Mountain, illuminating the country for miles around.

The nation joins in the toast, glorifying Lord Roberts and turbulently rejoicing in his victory.

The dispatches of Lord Roberts, telling of the incidents before the surrendering of the capital by these civil war, but alone, as the correspondence with him have not had their turn at the wires.

Lord Roberts's post correspondence, announcing the loss of the yeomanry battalion, has been the subject of a letter to know it last evening. The newspaper commentators consider the incident deplorable, but as having no real importance to the result, the battalion numbered between four hundred and five hundred men.

Gen. Buller and most of his men got away from Pretoria. This is inferred from Lord Roberts's message, but the presumption is that the Boer commander-in-chief cannot escape the British disposition without a fight. Operations elsewhere seem to have been checked.

SYNDICATE OF CAPITALISTS.

PHOENIX (ARIZ.) June 5.—Arrangements were made today by which the Phoenix mine, long idle, will be put in operation by a syndicate of New York capitalists. This follows upon an investigation and a series of tests, begun a year ago. A 100-ton cyanide plant is to be put in and will be in operation within six months. The Phoenix mine contains a vast body of low-grade ore whose extent is not known, but enough ore is in sight to run the plant for many years. This mine is within thirty miles of Phoenix.

SACRAMENTO, June 5.—Several days ago news was sent out from this city that an aged man named A. J. His baggage reached safely, but when the old man did not arrive his relatives were greatly alarmed and once instituted search for him. It was learned that

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

Kidney trouble causes quick or untidy heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Negotiations are On—Citizens Ask for Troops—Car Blown Up.

ST. LOUIS, June 5.—Negotiations between the strikers and the St. Louis Transit Company looking to a settlement of the strike are off for the present, and probably will not be resumed until the strikers agree not to demand the discharge of the men now in the employ of the company in order that they regain the positions they gave up when the strike was declared.

Attorney Lehmann, for the Transit Company, stated today that he would every man in the service of the company must be retained in the place assigned him, and until this is assented to by the strikers negotiations as to other matters are useless.

From a rioting standpoint today was practically uneventful. Assaults on law-abiding passengers continued. William A. Sander of Tipton, Mo., was set upon and brutally beaten by a mob of this afternoon, because they rode on a Transit Company car.

CITIZENS ASK FOR TROOPS.

ST. LOUIS, June 5.—The following telegram signed by fifty prominent business men of this city, was sent to Gov. Stephens at Jefferson City today:

We, the undersigned citizens of the city of St. Louis, respectfully represent that a condition of riotous lawlessness exists as incident to the strike on the street railways of this city, which prevents the running of cars and thus paralyzes the business of the city. The police of the city is numerically insufficient to suppress the lawlessness and police officers are in earnest, but have not numbers enough to accomplish the restoration of order and protect property and secure personal safety. The future is ominous of serious danger. We, therefore, ask that you order out the militia at once. Promptness will save much property and life, and quickly restore order.

Gov. Stevens, who was interviewed by telegraph, said he would not call out the militia until he was sure that necessity for their presence in St. Louis existed.

Ex-Gov. W. G. Stone, attorney for the strikers, today presented the amended demands of the men to the officials of the St. Louis Transit Company. The exact conditions of the amended proposals cannot be learned at present, but it is known that President Whitaker promptly turned them down. He said he would insist that all of the 1000 men now at work on the Transit lines be retained, and that if the strikers wished to return to work they must do so at once, or their place would all be taken, as additional nonunion men are coming in daily from other cities.

A special car carrying Co. H of the police, ran continuously from the tracks at Fifteenth and Washington streets and at Twenty-second street and Chicago street, and the explosion did not amount to much, but the second was a heavy one, lifting the three feet thick roof of the car, and blowing down the roof of the floor. The floor was blown up and the roof damaged. Fifty-four men were on the car. Fireman and Sam Schwartzburg were slightly injured.

The police were alerted by the explosion and in a few minutes about three thousand people were on the scene. They hoisted the deputies and soon began to throw stones. Somebody commenced to discharge a revolver at the car. Then the deputies were ordered to use their guns. They fired in the air as they charged the crowd. The shooting had the desired effect, and in a few minutes the crowd was out of sight. As far as known none of the assailants were hurt.

Special deputy sheriffs, members of the press committee, are on guard today at all car sheds and power-houses. Sheriff Pohlman continues to send out summons now to swear in the citizens as they arrive in his office. When his office closed last night the Sheriff had sworn in and armed a few more than one thousand men. It will be several days before the full complement of 2000 is secured.

Many of the police who have been guarding the sheds and power-houses have been ordered back to their regular beats. Enough officers to guard the street cars, however, will be retained for that while the riotous lawlessness continues through the disturbed districts contain very few passengers.

ROBBERS CAUGHT BY VICTIMS.

STERLING, (Colo.) June 5.—The sheep camp of King & Southgate, thirty miles northeast of Sterling, was robbed by two men who bound and gagged the proprietors and their two employees. After the robbers had the sheep men released themselves, and aided by a neighbor, overhauled the robbers, and shot and killed one of them. The other was captured by the neighbor. The latter said their names were William H. and John W. and that they were from Tennessee. James Lynch one of the guards, was painfully wounded in the hip.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

Kidney trouble causes quick or untidy heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

STRIKE ULTIMATUM.

Nonunion Employees Will not Be Discharged.

Negotiations are On—Citizens Ask for Troops—Car Blown Up.

ST. LOUIS, June 5.—Negotiations between the strikers and the St. Louis Transit Company looking to a settlement of the strike are off for the present, and probably will not be resumed until the strikers agree not to demand the discharge of the men now in the employ of the company in order that they regain the positions they gave up when the strike was declared.

Attorney Lehmann, for the Transit Company, stated today that he would every man in the service of the company must be retained in the place assigned him, and until this is assented to by the strikers negotiations as to other matters are useless.

From a rioting standpoint today was practically uneventful. Assaults on law-abiding passengers continued. William A. Sander of Tipton, Mo., was set upon and brutally beaten by a mob of this afternoon, because they rode on a Transit Company car.

GRAVE BUT ILL-LEGIBLE.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The break in the admiral's cablegram is caused by an illegible group of figures. Regarding in one light it would seem that the Navy had landed fifty sailors to reinforce the marines already ashore and in another aspect the gap might lead to state that fifty sailors had been landed with another battalion of marines. However that may be, the admiral's news is regarded as of the utmost gravity. Secretary Long has cabled him to send his messages hereafter in plain English in order to avoid further misunderstandings and delays in transmitting the cipher.

SITUATION IS ALARMING.

BERLIN, June 5.—The latest news regarding the "Boxers" has reached here both by private and official telegrams, all of which say the situation is black and alarming. The German Foreign Office considers an encounter between the "Boxers" and Russians an event probably fraught with the greatest danger.

BARN AND CONTENTS BURNED.

An alarm was turned in at 11:57 o'clock this morning from box No. 412 for a fire in a barn in the rear of the residence of Mrs. E. J. Alexander, No. 1401 Harvard street, Pico Heights. The building and contents, consisting of furniture and carpenter's tools, were totally destroyed, at a loss of about $600, on which there was no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

LIVES AND LUMBER LOST.

QUEREC, June 5.—The lumber plant at St. Etienne de Saguenay, belonging to Prince Bros. & Co. of Quebec, was destroyed by fire tonight. The loss will reach $400,000. Forty families are homeless as a result of the conflagration, and it is believed several perished in the flames.

[HARPER'S REPLY:] "I trust," said the new member of the School Committee, "that you do not hold out to your pupils the misleading hope that each of them may be the President."

"No, indeed," replied the dominie, "but I do not think that I err on the side of improbability when I teach them that each has a good chance of being a Presidential possibility."

The University of Southern California through its trustees has emphasized the need for a solution of the California colleges is out of the question. The meeting was presided over by the board, reported on the financial condition of the University. The trustees were estimated at $184,674. The liabilities were placed at $25,000. Mr. Chase said that of the proposed $100,000, $50,000 would be used for the Art. He has obtained promises of $50,000. ## Reports from the Wells—Latest Los Angeles Consolidation.

Fullerton Oil Company, Inc.

LIFE OF AN OIL WELL.

How Long Do Producers Produce in Los Angeles?

They Hold Up Better in Some Other Fields—Pumped-out Wells.

The life of an oil well in Los Angeles is like nearly everything else pertaining to the industry in the city, rather variable. Some wells which were good producers when first opened were exhausted in two to three years, while others have been steady and reliable producers for six years, and give evidence of pumping for several years to come.

The first wells to be exhausted were situated in the eastern field or in that territory lying between the Cathedral Cemetery and the Mission Hospital. This field was opened in 1897 and already many of the wells have been abandoned. Of course the territory is not yet played out, but well-informed men do not hesitate to say that another year will practically exhaust the field.

The second street park was the first opened, and as previously stated has been a comparatively long-lived field. In this section and extending as far west as Comstock street, at the foot of Nob Hill, a second oil sand of great richness is found, and to this fact is due the permanency of the wells and their large production. By comparison, however, with the life of wells in other California fields, it will be found that the wells in this section of the city have not held up their flow so well as the producers in Paicines, Pico, Norwalk and other fields.

The Western Baptist College field, by which is meant all the wells between Comstock street and Vermont avenue, north of Sixth, is really a new proposition, having been developed almost entirely within the last year. This field is slightly wider than in other portions of the city, and the wells are very shallow, ranging from 200 to 300 feet. No second oil sand has yet been found, and the fact of water has depressed the flow from some of the wells. The first sand, which was of proven richness. The wells in this section have been very rich when first opened, some starting to pump as much as 100 barrels daily. The falling off has been very rapid, and but few have shown a production of more than twenty barrels per day, after working one month. Several causes contribute to the decrease in the life of the wells, and in the rapid decrease in production, but by far the greatest reason is the fact of the wells being placed so closely together. One well to an acre is usually considered enough, but in this city it is common to see two wells on one acre. On one block just south of Baptist College there are twenty wells, and it is not surprising that a few months' pumping is sufficient to greatly diminish the supply of oil.

The daily production of oil in this city is estimated by these best informed, to be about 800 barrels. The production has remained at about this figure during the year, up to the present. There has been but a little change, one way or the other. During this period 181 new wells have been drilled, and many more deepened and cleaned. There have been wells abandoned during the same time, showing a net increase in the number of wells in the city of 100. The wells have had on the start, a production of from 25 to 100 barrels daily, and the amount of oil produced has remained the same. It is therefore plain that the falling off in old wells has not about kept pace with the new production.

The decrease in output is well illustrated by the number of the daily production of the total number of wells. There are 200 barrels divided by 200, the present number of producers, which shows about 1 barrel as the average production per well each day.

The deduction from the figures already given is plain. The output of but little more than four barrels daily, a great deal, a great many wells are producing about one barrel a day or less. And it is seen that the wells in the western field start off with 25 barrels daily, and drop to a yield of one-fifth of that amount.

NEW WYOMING RAILROAD.
ENGINEER EXPLAINS HIS MYSTERIOUS OPERATIONS.

(A. P. HARTLEY A. M. REPORT.)
CHEYENNE (Wyo.) June 5.—Engineer J. D. Nugent, who has had a railroad survey corps in the field for the last three months, has returned to Cheyenne. Nugent explained the mystery of his operations, which have caused much comment in railroad circles by saying that a company has been organized to build a railroad over the route surveyed, which runs from Port Laramie to Burlington on the Greatwater, a distance of 20 miles. The company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $1,000,000. N. R. Davis of this city is president.

The object of the road is to open the oil fields of the Seminoles. It will also strike the oil fields of Santa Fe, the copper and gold districts of the Laramie range, and will connect with the Colorado and Southern, and Burlington roads.

RAILROAD NOTES.
Trains are being taken to begin work on the Traction line to reach from the depot on First street at the end of the Traction line on Third street. The same in the case with the extension of the Terminal branch to Santa Fe into an electric line. There is a good deal of preliminary burning to be done, and it is difficult to come setting a date when work will begin. It may be about the middle of July, and it may not be before the end of that month.

P. R. Hule, general manager of the Terminal, is in San Francisco. T. R. Gibson, Esq., vice-president of the Terminal, left here for San Francisco by the Owl last night. Mr. Gibson will be home again Thursday morning. A. G. Wells, general superintendent of the Santa Fe, went to San Francisco last night. Mr. Wells will be gone, perhaps, ten days.

CALUMET MINE STILL BURNING.
CHICAGO June 5.—A special to the Chronicle from Houghton, Mich., says the temperature of the burning shaft of the Calumet and Hecla mine shows that the fire is unchecked and underground. Gas escapes in large volumes and numerous cracks in the earth, and a large force of men and teams is constantly employed in covering the vents with dirt. Workmen are frequently overcome by the fumes and party of eight men narrowly escaped asphyxiation.

NEGRO SUSPECT TORTURED.

MOB'S EFFORT TO MAKE HIM CONFESS FUTILE.

(A. P. DAY REPORT.)
MOBILE (Ala.) June 5.—A mob from Haneboro, Miss., took the negro, Ashew, suspected of the outrage and murder of the Winterstein child, Saturday, from the Mississippi City jail last night and carried him in a wagon to the home of Winterstein, near Biloxi. Mr. Winterstein, the father, was called out and the negro taken to the woods where the crime was committed. There he was tortured with ropes and fire in an attempt to force a confession. Ashew, who badly burned, continued to protest his innocence. He was returned to jail this morning. Mayor Nash has telegraphed to all points for suspects to be held.

EVIDENCE OF HIS GUILT.

(A. P. DAY REPORT.)
MOBILE (Ala.) June 5.—A dispatch from Mississippi City says investigation confirms the belief that Ashew is the man who murdered Miss Winterstein. His clothing was found covered with blood and he could not explain it. Undoubtedly the mob would have hanged the negro then and there but the mother of the young girl sent a message asking that the man be brought to Biloxi for her identification.

RESTRICTION OF IMMIGRATION.

LABORERS DISCUSS THE QUESTION AT NEW YORK.

(A. P. HARTLEY A. M. REPORT.)
NEW YORK June 5.—Delegates of the central labor bodies who were appointed to consider the question of the restriction of immigration held a conference last night.

A letter was received from E. Dubois, who suggested an extension of the question that all immigrants be landed in southern ports as New Orleans and Mobile, instead of in New York, where there was a congestion of population. The fare to those ports, he said, would be $10 more than to New York, and that would deter poor foreigners from coming. Again, said Dubois, an influx of immigrants would arouse the South to restrictive activity. William H. Allen of District Assembly, No. 4, said that Italians who came here and worked a while and then returned to their homes, took away from this country $25,000,000 annually. This, combined with what other "birds of passage" took away, swelled the amount to about $100,000,000 annually. Delegate John H. White, who was in the chair, would, he said, make a comparison of all the plans and suggestions sent in, together with the conclusions of the conference, and submit them to the central labor bodies.

MILLIONAIRE CLARK'S WILL FILED.

WORCESTER (Mass.) June 5.—The will of Jonas G. Clark, founder of Clark University, and estimated to have been worth about $10,000,000, has been filed for probate. To his wife he bequeathed $100,000, and the income from $400,000 during life. To a number of relatives are given large bequests. His most important bequest is to Clark University. He offers to give just double the sum that can be raised by the friends of the university. If $500,000 is raised within three years he will give $1,000,000, and also the residue of his estate.

BERNE (Switzerland) June 5.—In response to the request made by the United States and Chilean Ministers to select the third member of the arbitration court, which is to settle the claims and counter-claims held by the citizens of each country against the government of the other, the President of the Swiss Republic has selected J. B. Pioda, the Swiss Minister to the United States, to act in the capacity named.

He said he had walked all the way from Jacksonville, Fla., and had been more than three months on the road. He is not a tramp, but displayed more than $100 in cash. ## Gold Bricks for Footpads.

Several Los Angeles citizens, who own valuable timepieces, have equipped themselves with devices designed to temporarily satisfy the cravings of the footpads for the gold watch of commerce. The scheme is a brainy one, and without work, carried at night in the pocket usually occupied by the genuine timepiece. The highwayman is supposed to help himself to the fake concern and go on his way rejoicing, while the watch owner, who has been bored in his wheels, died in Chicago.

A Telegram was received here yesterday.

Monday night, of Charles G. Hunter, formerly of this city. During the boom, Hunter was engaged in the real estate business, and had an office on Broadway, between First and Second streets. He made considerable money, and later increased his wealth by a fortunate mining speculation. During the past few years he had been on the road for a prominent Chicago machinery company. He was about 41 years of age, and unmarried.

An Embryo Soldier.

County Clerk C. W. Bell is a captain in the Celebrated American Club of Pasadena. Kenneth Bell, the young son, is accordingly, a great admirer of all things military, especially the heavy drill uniforms. The youngster has formed a drill corps, composed of his still younger sister, and the evolution of the two performers is highly amusing. Commanders are not always given, according to the drill manual. "Marking time is one of the juvenile commander's favorite movements, and 'wipe feet' is another."

Send Flowers.

Flower Mission day will soon be here. It is the birthday anniversary of the first national flower mission superintendent, Miss Jeanie Cassidy, who, for twenty-five years, was an invalid, not leaving her cot. She took this department of the W.C.T.U., planned the campaign, wrote letters, and set many to work under her. Over 1000 bouquets with scripture texts were sent out in Los Angeles last year on this day by the Central W.C.T.U., and much accomplished also by other unions of the city. They wish to do more this year, and again call upon their friends to help them. Send flowers tied in bunches of twelve to Temple street, corner of Broadway, Friday morning. Any one who can give their services throughout the day will be welcomed.
